ACTIVATE SUPERCONSCIOUSNESS

We introduce this powerful process, which has similarities with hypnotherapy and yet is very much designed in order to activate a superconscious state, rather than the accessing of the subconscious mind. Working with only the subconscious tends to be limiting and relatively slow. Accessing the superconscious via activate superconscious is more direct, quicker and also gives us access to the subconscious at the same time.

QUANTUM SPACE HOLDING

If we want to download information from our superconscious mind into our personal morphogenic field, it is important to create a clear, clean energetic space to work in. In reality, we are expanded fields of consciousness and energy interacting with many different energetic fields. Firstly, this container ensures that we are fully protected throughout the session. Imagine a nice, clean, clear room that you enter and command instruction sets, giving permission only for certain energies to enter that working space. Opening this space ensures a very clear channel to your highest aspects, free of distortion or misguided energy or consciousness. We can also set specific instructions and intentions within the energetic container, such as for healing particular areas, DNA activation, ancestral cleansing, alchemical transmutation, the connecting of clear channels to our higher aspects and so much more. The list of creative possibilities here is unlimited

"I had a quantum session with Donna and wow. Her space holding is incredible. Working in such a safe, potent, pure and loving space is magic. I will only work with practitioners who I know will create the highest vibrational safe space of purity and Donna really does this. I dropped in deep, went deep and she really unlocked the next part of my journey for me. I feel I have embodied the next bit of my magic. Would highly recommend if you are ready to transform.' CLEAR COMMUNICATION

One of the most useful tools quantum hypnotherapy presents is the opening up of a clear communication channel between you and your superconscious mind or higher self. This is achieved using a quantum hypnosis method that quietens the analytical mind and connects you to the Source consciousness that you are. It activates a brainwave state known as Gamma, which in turn activates a superconscious state of being. When this communication channel opens you can literally ask anything of your superconscious or highest self. Your highest self knows everything about who and what you truly are, and has direct access to the quantum field. The questions that you may ask of your higher self are virtually limitless, but here are some common examples:.

- Who am I?
- What is my purpose?
- What do I need to learn?
- What are my core wounds?
- Can they be healed?
- What are my natural gifts?
- What do my relationships mean?
- What channels to my higher aspects are available to me?
- What is causing or creating this disease/discomfort/physical ailment?
- What is my origin within Creation/the Universe?

These are just a few examples of questions a client may ask during a quantum hypnotherapy session. Any question that can be thought of can be asked, and answers usually come with ease.

HEALING AND REMOVING BLOCKS

When we are able to access our superconscious, miraculous healing can occur. This healing is quantum and multi-dimensional. The mind often interferes with the body's ability to heal because so many people are disconnected from the physical body. The conscious mind is powerful and often interferes with the process of natural healing. The body holds all blueprints for effective healing to take place. There have been many instances of miraculous healing by being connected into the quantum field. When connected to the superconscious, the individual may ask for healing in specific areas. If healing is able to take place, the individual can then experience it in a number of ways unique to them. Higher dimensional light technologies are often used, and people experience this in different ways. Our core wounds are very often the barriers preventing us from integrating with our highest Selves. This can be remedied during these sessions, as we can easily identify what needs to be healed and cleared.

RAPID LEARNING

By being connected to our superconscious and the quantum field of infinite possibility, we have potential access to infinite knowledge, information and wisdom. We can download this information together with learning 'instruction sets' into our personal morphogenetic field. Once integrated, what we learn can feel very familiar because in truth we are actually remembering it. We are also able to access our soul and ancestral memories stored within us, and this remembrance can feel at once familiar and as if we are learning something new.

ACTIVATING GIFTS

We each have unique, natural gifts or abilities. Some of these gifts have been dormant within us and have yet to be activated. During a quantum hypnotherapy session, we can request our superconscious to show us our individual gifts which are ready to be activated. We can also ask how our specific gifts are to be used, and for guidance on how we can develop them. We are all natural healers, and we all have access to multiple gifts, abilities and technologies. These gifts enable us to be more effective with our own healing and to then assist others.

Some of our gifts are so advanced that we need to understand more about the nature of reality creation in order to use these gifts effectively. We will learn more about this during the training.

ENERGY PSYCHOLOGY

This course will also involve learning a number of complementary energy psychology techniques which can optionally be used in conjunction with hypnosis. These energy psychology techniques are designed to get to the root cause of internal patterning and programs which may be variously labeled as depression, anxiety, trauma, phobia etc. The course will also involve the exploration and deeper understanding of energy systems and issues of disconnect, finding ways to resolve this and to come into deeply connected wholeness within ourselves.
